CHAMBERFEST

Julie Nesrallah mezzo-soprano

Guy Few piano

It's the girl in the chair with the big hair! Chamberfest welcomes Julie Nesrallah, mezzo-soprano and CBC Tempo host, back to our stage with Heat, a program featuring "the sexiest songs in classical music." Joined by pianist Guy Few, these two treasured Canadian personalities explore a spicy Iberian palette with works by De Falla, Montsalvatge, Debussy, Saint-Saëns, and of course – a bit of Bizet's Carmen. As both a singer and a radio host, Nesrallah's warm and sultry voice is, in the words of Eric Friesen, "her defining presence," while virtuoso Guy Few is known for his "flawless... wild, and joyous" performances. Don't miss these award-winning Chamberfest favourites in a performance showcasing their engaging personalities, expressiveness, and fearless interpretations – together, a seduction of the senses!
